

Class Behavior Incentive

Elementary:

Each class has a painter's palette on the board. When the class does a good job of following the classroom rules, they will earn one color. Once all 6 colors are on their palette, they will earn a prize from the prize box.

Middle School:

Each class has a painter's palette on the board. When the class earns 10 colors they will get a prize. The way they earn the colors varies from week to week depending on what they need to work on ie. cleaning up, noise level, staying on task, etc...